Working with Dalhart Windberg over the years motivated Broyles to pursue a career in art. He graduated from Texas A&M in 2007, where he obtained training in drawing and painting and earned a bachelor's degree in architecture. His studies there inspired him to incorporate architectural themes into many of his pieces.

Broyles continues to pursue a lifelong interest in history, often painstakingly capturing in his compositions moments of everyday life from bygone eras. His passion for the past, combined with an ingrained sense of optimism, results in paintings that evoke both a hopeful enthusiasm and a deeply moving appreciation for days of yore.

He is currently represented by the Southwest Gallery in Dallas and Nanette Richardson Fine Art in San Antonio.

President's Letter

Greetings everyone!

We will reinstate our famous refreshments for our next meeting and will have all refreshments individually wrapped by request of the group. We also will discontinue the usual punch and substitute coffee, water, or sodas of your choice. I want to thank our volunteers, Louise Loggins and Kay Thomas for volunteering and appreciate their forgiveness for the last minute cancellation.

We had a great time with Charlie Bullock and his southwest work is by far his love and passion.

Our October workshop with Clinton Broyles is currently full.

Congratulation to Louise Loggins who won the door prize for September!

Welcome to our thirteen (13) first time new members. We are very glad to have you and hope you get to know all of us and feel right at home here. We all share the love of art! Our October refreshments will be provided by Carol Durrum and Ann Glaess. We are looking forward to that part of our program and appreciate your efforts to serve.

Our Small Gallery artist will be Ann Glaess and I know we are looking forward to seeing her work.

Enjoy!
Shirley Clay

I live in Mount Vernon, Texas and have been painting just over six years. I began painting like many other people, after retirement on a lark. I got more serious when I joined the Mount Pleasant Art Society. I have taken most of the workshops offered by MPAS and feel I have improved! I have won a contest or two and sell a few paintings. Mostly I just paint a lot. I love portraits best and am challenged by composition and creating distance in a landscape.
